Delhi Sightseeing

Discover the diversity of Old and New Delhi in one day on a special private tour. The day tour takes you from the spacious planned streets of New Delhi to the action-packed lanes and alley ways of Old Delhi. Travel in the air-conditioned comfort of your private chauffeured vehicle to uncover the highlights of India's bustling capital.

Delhi is one of the best examples in the world where 'old meets new'. You can choose to visit Raj Ghat and Shanti Vana, Jama Masjid, the Red Fort, Chandi Chowk market, Qutab Minar, Humayun's Tomb and many more sights on this private day tour.

Strolling through the streets of Delhi you will hear the ringing bells of bicycle rickshaws and tooting horns of Mercedes-Benz cars, and even dodge the odd resting cow in the middle of a busy intersection. On a sightseeing tour of Old and New Delhi your senses will come alive as you encounter the many sights and sounds this amazing city has to offer.

Half Day City Tours-1

- 1. Qutub Minar: The tallest hand carved brick minaret in the world at 72.5 meters, it is one of the finest examples of Indo- Islamic architecture. The construction began in the 12th century by the slave king Qutubuddin Aibak, from whose name the minaret gets its name. In the same complex is a mosque and iron pillar, which has not rusted even after 1,500 years.
- 2. Humayun's Tomb: The mausoleum of the Mughal Emperor Humayun. It was built in 1570 by the emperor's widow, Haji Begum. As a UNESCO World Heritage Site, it was the first garden tomb of India and a forerunner of the Mughal style of architecture, with high arches and formal gardens (charbagh).
- 3. The Lotus Temple: One of the predominant symbols of the city's multicultural, multi-religious ethos is the Bahai temple. Built along the lines of a lotus flower, the temple built of marble, welcomes people of all faiths to worship in tranquillity. It is surrounded by nine pools set amidst well-designed gardens.

Half Day City Tours-2

- 1. India Gate: A 40-meter high war memorial arch dedicated to Indian soldiers who died in World War I.
- 2. Rashtrapati Bhawan_(drive by): The President's residence and formerly the Viceroy's Palace, this building is constructed on top of Raisina Hill. As the highlight of Lutyen's Delhi, it is an impressive sight, particularly when it is lit up.
- 3. Parliament House and the Secretariat buildings (drive by): These buildings are an interesting blend of Victorian and 20th century architecture and formed part of Lutyen's plan for Delhi.
- 4. Lakshminarayan Temple: The temple was constructed by the Birla family of industrialists in the 19th century. The presiding deity is Lakshmi Narayan and the temple has a hall decorated with beautiful paintings depicting scenes from Indian mythology.
- 5. Connaught Place : The centrally located commercial district of Delhi, is famed for its business establishments – domestic and multinational, and also for its multiproduct retail markets and multi-cuisine/specialty restaurants

- 1. Raj Ghat: Mahatma Gandhi, one of the greatest freedom fighters of India was cremated here after his assassination in 1948.
- 2. Jama Masjid: The largest mosque in India, it was built by the Mughal Emperor Shah Jehan in the 17th century. Constructed with red sandstone and marble, it stands testimony to the architectural skills of the Mughals.
- 3. Red Fort: A massive fort with walls running for 2 kilometers, it was built to serve as the second capital for Shah Jehan and has a number of important buildings like the Diwan-i-Aam (Hall of Public Audience), Diwan-i-Khas (Hall of Private Audience) and Rang Mahal (Palace of Colors). The famous Peacock Throne was carried off from the Diwan-i-Khas by Nadir Shah.
- 4. Chandni Chowk: Once an imperial avenue of Mughal royalty, Chandni Chowk is one of the busiest commercial areas of the city, where rickshaws jostle for space with cars, buses and people. Walk through the market for a flavor of an Indian bazaar.
